*P3a. Description: (Describe resource and its major elements. Include design, materials, condition, alterations, size, setting, and boundaries.)

Building N-241 is one of two curved buildings (the other is Building N-233) along Bush Circle that are rendered in a Modern architectural style. This building has a two-story central massing, which is flanked on either side by one-story portions. It has a concrete foundation, concrete structural system, and a scored concrete façade. Along the south façade are rows of ribbon windows on the first and second floors and two main entrances, which are demarcated by brick garden walls, concrete staircases, concrete handicap ramps, and glazed aluminum doors with sidelights. The building's fenestration is composed of large plate-glass fixed windows with concrete canopies. Along the north façade is a concrete loading dock with a steel canopy. The building is surrounded by landscaped elements, such as shrubs, street trees, sidewalks, and concrete curbs. It is 62,370 sq. ft.

This building appears to be in good condition.
